Officer Reports

Secretary

Shawn reported that the latest "Brothers' News" was posted to the website and it was pretty effing funny.

Old Business

1. Kovner Banquet
 - a. 27 RSVPs to date. Bob would need a head count for the Holiday Inn 3 days before the event.
 - b. Email reminders will continue.
 - c. Undergraduate phone calls proceeding.
 - d. Trophies would be attained from Dean Sizemore.
 - e. Shawn recommended that the 50/50 proceeds be earmarked for the Ian Mentzer Fund for the Future. The eBoard unanimously approved.
 - f. Phil will discuss our support expectations (i.e. hot hostesses) with the undergraduates.
 - g. Rex, youngest and oldest brothers would be warned of their obligation to speak and told to wear protective goggles.
2. Pledge Program
 - a. The Pledge Program, particularly the teambuilding exercises, were evaluated and unanimously voted as "pretty gay" by the e-Board.
 - b. In accordance with undergraduate wishes to more closely align the program with Alpha Delta tradition, the Alumni Association has identified a number of program enhancements to incorporate into the existing education program.
 - c. Those traditions that encouraged hazing on any level were not considered.
 - d. The following traditions were recommended for their value as brotherhood building exercises and overall fun factor.
 - i. Bid Night/Big Brother; Little Brother
 - ii. Pledge Dinner
 - iii. Weekly pledge meetings
 - iv. Pledge class officers
 - v. Daily sign in (when they get a house)
 - vi. Fact Books
 - vii. Kovner Plaque! and history

- viii. Learning dopey songs and singing them in public
- ix. Pledge class plaque (not paddles)
- x. Alpha Delta History
- xi. Lock-in
- xii. Pledge project
- xiii. Skit night (fruit optional)
- xiv. Kangaroo Court
- xv. Scavenger hunt

New Business

1. Undergraduate Housing
 - a. Fred Brehm reported that he is assisting the undergraduates in attaining a rental property at 17th and Oxford.
 - i. Fred is in contact with the landlord to negotiate a fair lease
 - ii. Commitment from other buyers is questionable. Fred is fairly confident that the negotiation will go in the chapter's favor.
 - iii. Alumni Association is not at risk as we are not on the lease.
 - iv. Fred will discuss potential monetary needs from the House Corp with Jerry Balka.
2. Fundraiser for Ian Mentzer Fund for the Future
 - a. At the behest of Shawn Mahoney, Mike Naegele, degenerate gambler that he is, graciously offered to arrange a poker tournament to benefit the Mentzer Memorial fund.
